

TRUSPEND CHECKING ACCOUNT

Freedom for kids. Control for parents. Zero monthly fee.

Teaching financial literacy to kids starts with a strong understanding of how money works. Once you establish your foundation, you can help your kids grow with hands-on practice. At Alltru Credit Union, we have great accounts to start them off on the right financial path that can easily fit their growing needs.

There's nothing like the feeling of financial independence, and Alltru is here to help your kids get a taste of it. Our TruSpend Checking account makes it easy for you to show your kids how to manage their money, one of the most valuable lifelong skills they can have.

Pair a TruSpend Savings account with TruSpend Checking to help them learn how to save and spend wisely.
